

JOHNSON CITY HOMEOWNER REPAIR FAIR

Wednesday, May 31, 2017

Drop By Between 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Are you a homeowner living in Johnson City and are having trouble with making necessary repairs to your home? Drop by during our Homeowner Repair Fair to get more information and see if you qualify for assistance. Johnson City has resources available through the HUD Community Development Block Grant and the Northeast Tennessee/Virginia HOME Consortium. Recipients must meet income and ownership requirements. For more information contact:

Sherry Trent (423) 232-4784 ext. 306 or sherryt@jchousing.org

Parking is available behind the Keystone Rec Center in the Children's First and Head Start lot.

Program Partners:

Johnson City

Johnson City Housing
Authority

First Tennessee
Development District

Homeowners must meet the following criteria to qualify:

1. Meet low-to-moderate income guidelines
2. Proof (warranty deed) that you own your home and the land it is located on
3. Lived in & owned the home for a minimum period of one year.
4. Home is located within Johnson City Limits; property taxes paid up to date.

Interested homeowners should, pick up an application, and schedule a time for a personal appointment to discuss their qualification for this program.

Event Location

Johnson City Housing
Authority

Keystone Recreation Center

841 Pardee Street
Johnson City, TN 37601